

NONPROFIT ASSURANCE, TAX & ADVISORY SERVICES

- Educating future leaders
- Providing job training and life skills to individuals with challenges
- Alleviating hunger and homelessness
- Providing grants to nonprofit organizations to help fulfill their mission
- Developing tourism and economic development opportunities

These are just a few examples of the goals of an increasingly varied and diverse nonprofit industry. Challenges at the federal, state and local government levels have increased the need for nonprofits to address social issues with an ever decreasing level of funding. Economic variations, potential tax law revisions and heightened competition only increase the difficulty of fund-raising initiatives, placing further pressure on an already challenged industry.

In this environment, it is understandable that industry experience has emerged at the top of the list of what nonprofit organizations need and expect from their accountants and advisors. HoganTaylor has a commitment to “Service” written into our organizational values and we have intentionally focused on providing a wide variety of services to nonprofit organizations since our firm was founded. In recent years, we have taken this philosophy a step further by creating a dedicated nonprofit group whose members not only understand the unique aspects of nonprofit organizations, but have developed in-house processes specifically designed to serve our nonprofit clients unique compliance and organizational needs.

HOGANTAYLOR APPROACH

Due to the incredible diversity among nonprofit organizations, increasing changes in financial reporting rules and continued public scrutiny of information included in tax filings you need service providers who understand what makes your nonprofit unique.

- HoganTaylor is a charter member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) Governmental Audit Quality Center. Membership is indicative of our commitment to providing quality financial statement and compliance audit services to our nonprofit clients receiving governmental assistance.
- Our dedicated, interdisciplinary team is focused on understanding your needs and expectations and working with your management and Board to best serve your needs.
- Our senior team members attend the AICPA National Nonprofit Conference each year, staying abreast of current issues affecting nonprofits. We conduct in-house training for all levels of our service team to ensure all clients are served by knowledgeable, highly trained personnel. We also regularly lead external trainings for a variety of organizations, to ensure you too have the information you need to be successful.
- We utilize secure portal technology developed specifically by HoganTaylor which allows you and your engagement team to collaborate and communicate on one central platform. This HT-specific solution enables all of the involved parties to participate and contribute to the success of your engagement.
